

International Project Gifts

CAF Canada has over 3,000 Eligible International Organizations in its database, representing nearly 80 Countries around the world.

International Project Gifts (IPG) are the perfect solution for donors who want to give globally once, or more than once, without establishing a Fund at CAF Canada.

Donors can recommend that CAF Canada supports a new or on-going charitable project, or CAF Canada can recommend a charitable project that fits the donor's interests and philanthropic goals.

GIVE WITH CONFIDENCE

CAF Canada's CRA-approved areas of charitable activity, known as objects, allow us to fund a broad range of projects around the world. Our objects encompass poverty relief, the advancement of education, animal welfare, medical research, health promotion, environmental issues, the arts, and human rights abuse.

CAF Canada is dedicated to compliance with Canadian law and the highest ethical standards, reflecting our commitment to trust and integrity. CAF Canada's recipient organizations undergo a uniquely thorough review process to ensure that all approved projects facilitate positive change around the world.
